Ship of State Shivers.

The ship of State has already felt it bers quake more than once from the vaves of anarchism. And unless waves of anarchism. And unless we go back to Purltanism, back to the spirit of our forefathers, the grating of the keel will continue. This country at some future date will be congested like the Old World, and then will it be put to the real test. Then will it have to battle the turbulent waters. What we need, what we should pray for is a sounder, calmer, better, and safer American character.

ANOTHER ARREST IN CARPENTER CASE

Alleged Accomplice of John M. Jefferson Caught.

A twenty-four-hour chase for the com anion of John M. Jefferson, arrested Priday while attempting to collect a coan he had negotiated on property beonging to Frank G. Carpenter, a well longing to Frank G. Carpenter, a well-known newspaper correspondent, bore fruit yesterday evening when Central Office Detectives arrested Frank Jef-ferson, who says he is the prisoner's son. It was learned that two men answering the descriptions of the Jeffersons had rooms at 718 Twelfth street northwest. Detectives arrested the younger man there.

there. Frank Jefferson, as he calls himself, says he was discharged from the army in San Francisco about two months ago, after having served an enlistment in the Philippines. He declares that "his father" did not say anything to him regarding the intended swindle. The police declare that the younger man has told several conflicting stories. They do not believe the men are related in any way.
